his has been another year of life. Success and failure have flavored what we have done. High purpose and unworthy and humanly foolish things have inspired us to do what we have done. Our campus world has again run its orbit's course.

It would be hard to persuade the Seniors that this has not been an unusual year. This has been their year on the summit. For a long time they have waited for this year's end and the days beyond. But as graduation nears, the light that has beckoned so long seems not to beam so brightly or so steadily; and many wish we had longer to stay here in our world. As we are crowded by those who will take our places, life seems an ephemeral thing as a new day which the sun soon leaves behind.

The disillusioned Sophomores will forget their cynical sophistry long enough to move a step nearer heaven and go to the balcony. The Freshmen will grow their own legs and feed their own fish.

War has haunted us this year. Many think Hitler will get some of us before we finally get him; we all hope not. Grim realization was ours on October 15 when all the boys over twenty registered for Selective Service . . . these would be the first to go. Death has darkened our light; and the marriage of some of our fellow Southwesterners has gladdened all of our hearts.

Another year will soon go. In this book, we have tried to represent this year at Southwestern. It has been your year, and it is your book.

Turn on for the 1941 Sou'Wester.

Dedication

When a man whose understanding is not confined—whose scholarship flows deep—forgets all for Christ, our faith finds itself upon the rock of his example. Our doubts diminish behind the strength of his word. Dr. Herbert Lee Gray has lived for Christ. He has testified for Him as a missionary in China and in Mexico. Since 1910, he has been a member of the Faculty of this school. He now holds the chair at the head of the Department of Religion and Philosophy. One sitting in his class can easily put himself in the place of those who sat at the feet of Samuel; before him you feel you are listening to God's messenger. Because of Gratitude the student feels for the teacher, we, the staff of the thirty-sixth Sou'Wester, lovingly dedicate this book to him.

tudents' opinions of their teachers vary; there are four hundred students and four hundred opinions. On one thing, however, we all agree: We are proud of our Faculty. Many of them are recognized widely because of their integrity and ability. Some are consulted repeatedly by those trying to gain a clearer insight into the truth.

BOOK ONE

Our fondest memories will cling, Cling to thee, Southwestern.

*For Texas still has need of thee,
Needs her own Southwestern.
And may thy sun forever shine,*

*As students gather at thy shrine,
For life and death we are all thine, always thine, Southwestern.*

John William Bergin, D.D., Ph.D.

PRESIDENT OF SOUTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY

This is the first year of Southwestern's second century as Texas' oldest institution of higher education. Forward steps have been taken. The beautiful new stone Library and Gymnasium help in rendering finer service.

Southwestern's future was never brighter nor has a happier, friendlier, more enthusiastic student body ever gathered on the beautiful old campus.

We congratulate Editor Harris and his staff and Mr. Lee Karr, staff photographer and Editor-elect for 1942, on the splendid Annual for Southwestern's 101st year.

egardless of fraternal or barbaric affiliations, this book concerns all the students. It would be well if we had given the activities which this book represents primary emphasis during this year. We did not; and our year yielded not its abundant potentialities. We split ourselves into two mutually jealous factions for no genuine reason at all. Until factional organizations are given secondary attention and until the fact that all Southwesterners belong to a real fraternal order based upon common ideals realized -- not until then -- will our School have a true school spirit. Then will Southwestern be able to perform its greatest service for Texas.

STUDENTS DISCUSSING PROPOSED HONOR SYSTEM

OFFICERS OF STUDENTS' ASSOCIATION

President CY RODGERS
Vice President JIMMY PRICE
Secretary MICKEY LOTT

The issue facing student government this year has been the adoption of a Students' Association Constitution. Made necessary by the revision of the student publication setup and the Honor System, the writing of this constitution has occupied much of the Student Senate's attention during the year. The Senate Committee entrusted with the formulating of this constitution was composed of Senators Gipson, Karr, Lampert and Campbell. The committee conferred frequently with Professor Hester. As the Sou'Wester goes to press, the new constitution is waiting for Faculty approval. It is hoped action will be taken in time for adoption this year.

The Students' Association is the means by which the students govern themselves. A resident or a day student is a member of the Students' Association. Executive officers of the Association are President, Vice President and Secretary. These officers are elected in an all school election on a Saturday during the Spring Term. The legislative phase of the Association is the Student Senate. The Senate is composed of five seniors, four juniors, three sophomores, two freshmen, three representatives from the Mood Hall Honor Council, three representatives from the Laura Kuykendall Hall Honor Council, and two representatives from the Snyder Hall Honor Council. As all Honor Councils have been limited in their jurisdiction or suspended, there is now no judicial branch of student government; however, one is provided for in the proposed constitution.

Under the administration of Cy Rodgers, the Students' Association has been aggressively and ably governed. In spite of the partisan groups into which Southwestern students are divided, the Student Senate has attempted to give all questions facing it thorough consideration.

The Panhellenic Council has been able to perfect a united front politically this year of the fraternities and the sororities. This front has been brought to equality in numerical strength with the independents, or Barbs; and with the reinstatement of Phi Mu in Southwestern, the Panhellenic now wields a numerical majority. The Panhellenic Council has controlled all of the classes but the Junior Class, which has an independent majority. Gladys Wilkinson, candidate of Panhellenic, was elected Miss Southwestern in December by a majority of seven. In March, however, the Panhellenic candidate for the Editorship of the Megaphone was defeated by the independent incumbent, Derrill Lee Cates, by a fair majority. Lee Karr, independent, was elected Editor of the 1942 Sou'Wester over another independent candidate—the Panhellenic Council not having nominated a candidate for that position. On April 19, the students will elect the officers of the Students' Association for 1942. A close and warm race for all three positions has been indicated as both the Panhellenic Council and the independents have nominated candidates. Jimmy Price is the candidate of Panhellenic for the Presidency, and Marvin Lampert is the independent candidate. As this section of the Sou'Wester goes to press on April 17, we are unable to present and congratulate the officers-elect of 1942.

SOU'WESTER FAVORITES OF 1941

This year as in years past, Miss Southwestern was chosen in an all-school election. On December 13, 1940, Miss Gladys Wilkinson was chosen Miss Southwestern for 1941. Miss Mary Jane Whitcomb was the Senior girl chosen by the Dean of Women to reign as Queen of the Rainbow.

In previous years Sou'Wester beauties were selected in all-school elections. This year they were chosen differently. Mr. Charles Boyer was asked to pick them from a group nominated by the respective sororities and the Barb Association. From all the nominees, he was asked to pick the most beautiful Southwestern girl; from the nominees of each organization, he was asked to pick the organization beauty. Mr. Boyer chose Miss Patsy Baker as the most beautiful Southwestern girl; as organization beauties, he chose

Miss Betty Garrison of the Barb Association, Miss Beth Briscoe of Zeta Tau Alpha, Miss Laura Nell Key of Delta Delta Delta, Miss Marjorie Medlenka of Phi Mu and Miss Marjorie Fisher of Alpha Delta Pi.

Also included for the first time are the Sou'Wester choices of the twenty-eight Southwesterners who have contributed most constructively to this year. Three veteran members of the Sou'Wester staff were asked to make the choices. The first eight represented Southwestern in the 1940 edition of Who's Who in American Colleges. These are well known and familiar to all, added comment about them from us would be tritely superfluous. The remaining twenty are possibly less well known, but they have also worked for Southwestern.

Georgetown, Texas.

Dear Mr. Harris:

I have pleasure in returning the photographs that you so kindly sent me to judge, and as indicated in my night letter I have made the following choice:

- (1) Alpha Delta Pi V
- (2) Alpha Delta Pi IV
- (3) Zeta Tau Alpha IX
- (4) Independent XIV
- (5) Delta Delta Delta II
- (6) Phi Mu XI

Your letter did not indicate whether the photographs were to be judged on beauty or a combination of beauty and personality and it is upon this latter basis that I have made my selection.

All of the photographs are worthy of mention and it was an extremely difficult task to select a leading lady from such a collection of beautiful photographs. In addition it was very difficult to choose either one of the Alpha Delta Pi contestants as all three were equally charming.

I hope that your 1941 issue of the Sou'wester will be a great success, and I shall be delighted to receive a copy of it when it is published.

With my best regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Charles Boyer

This section's purpose is to recognize the students which the Sou'Wester believes have counted constructively during this year. It is also supplementary. The group of Who's Who was selected as the outstanding students of the school.

Each of our nine representatives was presented in successive weekly editions of the MEGA-PHONE. The Sou'Wester presents the nineteen students, not elected to Who's Who, who were also worthy of recognition.

BOARD OF STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

Member not present: Sneed

With the reorganization of the student publications, the Board of Student Publications has assumed greater responsibility for their administration. During the summer, a complete reorganization of the publications was effected. The editorships of the Sou'Wester and the Megaphone were put on a salary basis, and the publication of the Southwestern Magazine was tentatively suspended. Soon, however, after the beginning of the fall semester the Board decided to continue the magazine as a separate publication, and Rodney Clark accepted the editorship. The Board has already made several changes in the publication setup for next year; however, the general policies which it has already established will continue.

Under the sponsorship of Miss Annabel Murray the quality of the Southwestern Magazine and the Megaphone has been greatly improved. Both can truthfully be said to represent aggregate of the students; both are media by which the thought and actions of Southwestern people are propagated and recorded.

Dr. G. B. Wolcott is the Faculty Advisor for the Sou'Western. Characteristically, his advice and assistance have been indispensable in producing this yearbook.

During the summer, the business managerships of the three publications were combined into one position. John Morelle, member of the Class of '40, accepted this position. Although his task has been great and strange, he has faithfully striven to maintain the standards set up by the Board and merits a large share of the credit for the progress the student publications have made during this year.

Professor M. L. Williams is Chairman of the Board of Student Publications, and Mr. I. J. McCooks is Secretary. The Board is composed of five members of the Faculty, two senior students of the University; and the editors of the three publications have been considered ex-officio members.

CLARK

Rodney Clark has served as editor of the Southwestern Magazine this year for no compensation. With the help of his highly capable staff, he has put out a well balanced publication to which the literary students have generously contributed. Not only has the Magazine been an organ of writers; but it has served as a forum in which various problems have been considered.

The Megaphone literally covers the campus like a blanket. Ten o'clock on Saturday morning is a time of anxious anticipation. It is then that a real blanket of Megaphones has been spread enveloping the attention of all the students until time for the next class. There are several features which this year's Megaphone has been the first Megaphone to possess. Possibly the one most appreciated is the consistency of regularity with which it has appeared each week. It has grown in size, this year it has been 16 by 24; and on March 22 a six-page edition was issued. The Megaphone is a source of much pride to all Southwesterners.

RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES

Summary by RAY LAWLER

1940-1941 saw a new high in the responsiveness of Southwestern to its religious program. The acceptance of such, however, was due largely to the tireless efforts of the personnel of the Christian forces themselves in devising attractive methods of procedure and through the securing of choice speakers to give further motivation to their plans.

"Campus Crusade Week," under the direction of the Campus Crusade was the initial religious function of the year. Held in October, it was one of the outstanding "Christian Group" activities of the year. The highlight of the year's religious program was "Religious Emphasis Week" held in February under the direction of the S.C.R.A. Rev. Cy Barcus of Houston was the speaker of the week.

Extensive efforts to better the moral conditions of Southwestern campus life were undertaken by the S.C.R.A., the Crusade movements, and the Kenneth Pope Sunday School Class during the school year.

A two weeks revival meeting at the University Church, with the Rev. Oran Stephens, Pastor, conducting climaxed the 40-41 religious activities.

SOUTHWESTERN FLYING SCHOOL

During the summer of 1940 Southwestern instituted a Civilian Pilot Training course as part of its share in the program for national defense. Approximately forty boys and one girl were taught to fly during the two semesters. The airport was located on the Temple highway. A hangar was constructed and two airplanes bought. A third one was purchased during the spring. In charge of the program during the fall were Mr. Frank Bryant and Mr. Virgil Reynolds. Mr. Joe McCook took over during the spring semester; and it has been due largely to his effort and persistence that the program was carried out through the spring. Flight instructors were Box Sexton, Ed Bartholemew, T. O. Summerville, Hixon Cowan, and Walter Simmons. Professor Bergin Dunn conducted the ground school twice weekly and three hours nightly throughout the year. And thus Southwestern University contributes forty potential war birds to Uncle Sam's air corps.

DEBATING

Southwestern Debators traveled more than 3500 miles this year to tournaments. The freshman team, composed of Walker and Jones, was rated highest in the junior division at the Arkadelphia, Arkansas, tournament held during the Thanksgiving holidays. They were also rated among the highest twelve teams at the Durant, Oklahoma, tournament in the spring. The Southwestern debaters, who debated intercollegiately are Gladys Wilkinson, Margaret Sandherr, Fred Brigman, Charles Perry Godbey, Courtney Siceloff, John Roger Walker, and Perry Jones. Mr. T. H. Marsh is the coach.

Lubbock, March 6-8. Members of the "Shanghai" cast were Billie Doris Hays, Kathryn Hedge, Carl Bergquist, and Ford Ainsworth. The Mask and Wig productions, "Winterset" and "Stage Door" were equally successful.

DRAMATICS

On their presentation of the play "Shanghai," the Southwestern players received a rating of excellent at the Intercollegiate One-Act Play Contest held in

SUMMARY OF SEASON

The grid fortunes of the 1940 Pirate football team fluctuated like a business cycle but underneath this season of friendly warfare lie a few facts that made Southwestern a feared antagonist.

The Bucs opened the season on Sept. 20 with a thrilling 6-0 win over the powerful Schreiner Institute Mountaineers at Kerrville, Texas.

eran College to the tune of 27-9 to take their third victory in eight days.

The Texas Wesleyan College Rams were featured as opponents for Homecoming on October 5 and gave the Bucs their initial setback 7-0 in a stirring contest before the packed stands on historic Snyder Field.

The powerful Bobcats of Southwest State Teachers College defeated the fighting Pirates 6-0 on October 11 and the champion Abilene Christian College Wildcats drubbed the Bucs severely the following weekend 21-0. On October 25, the co-champion Yellow Jackets of Howard Payne were forced to supreme efforts to defeat the victory hungry Bucs 10-2.

Trinity University's Tigers scored the bitterest win of the year with 12-7 decision gained in the last two minutes of play.

The Pirates broke into the win column on November 16 with a 14-13 triumph over the

The season finale was a 7-0 loss to the Austin College Kangaroos in Sherman which was probably the best game of the year, based on Buc playing form.

To distinguish one man on the eleven or several men as outstanding is neither a credit nor a justification for the season record. The backfield deserves high praise for its sparkling runs and good punting and the sterling line play that yielded only four touchdowns through the forward wall in eleven games must be significant.

Yet in our appraisal of the team record we should consider several important factors. Outstanding in these points to remember is the heavy coaching burden on Mr. R. M. Medley who is fielding a college football team without coaching aid from assistants. Another vital factor was the noticeable lack of school spirit and its associated disunity. The Pirates of 1940 were a fighting group that will salvage glory even in defeat and there is a niche in Southwestern athletic history for that kind of spirit.

'41 BASKETBALL

Basketball at Southwestern in '41 was given a rebirth with the building of the Jim West Gymnasium that was used for the first time this season.

Getting off to an impressive start by winning three straight, the Pirates ran into complications later on in the season and finished in the lower brackets. The improvement visible this year and the losing of only one letterman tend to bolster the possibilities of a banner season in years to come.

Coach "Med" Medley built the nucleus of his squad around some six or seven men. Elrod, Cobb, Runnels, Rice, Lampert, Doan, Bancroft, and Lucas gave outstanding performances throughout the season, with the other squadmen filling in.

Not only did the '41 season mark a rebirth in basketball men, but it could be hailed as the year that made S. U. students basketball-conscious. This year and in years to come the student body will be behind the Pirates.

INTRAMURALS

By BYRON RECORD

Organized in '38, Southwestern's 'Mural program, directed by Rhea Williams, has made great progress.

This program has become campus-wide in importance, ranking with the varsity in interest among the students. Under the present setup, every student on the campus has a chance to participate in any phase of the athletic program he chooses without having to compete with a group of specialized athletes. There are five teams in the school league: two Barb teams, the A's and the B's, composed of the Freshmen and Seniors, and the Sophomores and Juniors, respectively; and one team from each Fraternity, the K.A.'s, Phis, and Sigs.

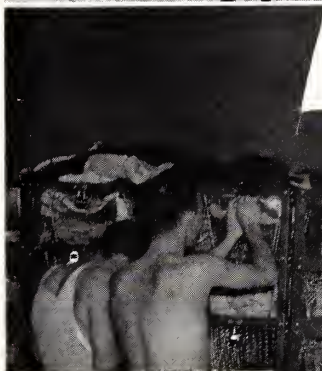

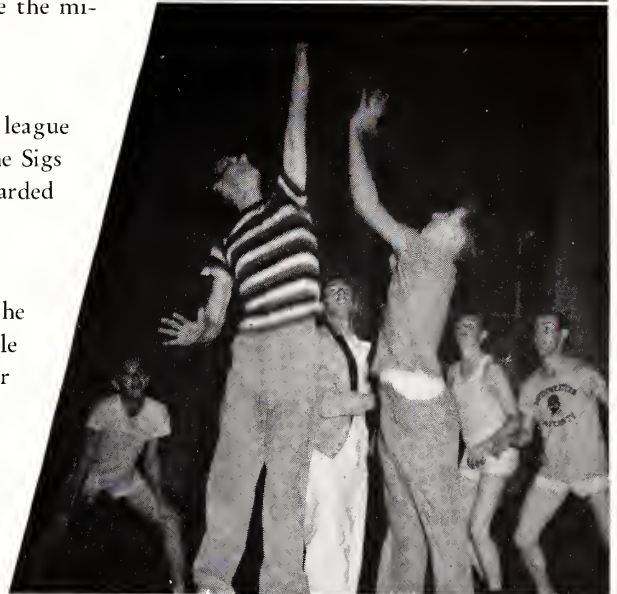

Competition includes four major sports, football, basketball, baseball, and track, with a host of minor sports mixed in. These minor sports broaden the student's field, with approximately 90% of the boys taking part in some activity. Points are awarded in each sport, the major ones counting 100, 75, and 50 points, while the minors are worth 50, 30, and 20.

Thus far the Barb B's are leading the league and will probably finish in first place. The Sigs are high in the Greeks and will likely be awarded the banner.

Last year the Barb A's walked off with the engraved plaque awarded for first place, while the K.A.'s copped the Intramural banner for the leading Frat.

"The Intramural program helps, not only physically, but mentally in improving the person's outlook on problems he will face in later life," Coach Williams said.

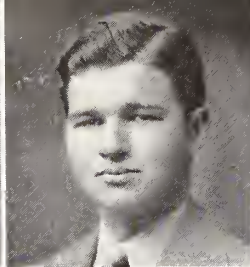

Factors of Cosmos

o these organizations has gone our primary effort. Sometimes we have let the worthiness of these organizations eclipse our regard for all of our fellow students . . and for our school. With a sincere effort to determine the nature of fundamental worth, will come the desire and ability to put each part of our college cosmos in its proper place. ♪ ♪

The Pan American Forum is one of the most active clubs on the campus. The Georgetown chapter is a charter member of the national organization. For several years the club has had first place among the academic floats in the Homecoming parade. National and international conventions, trips to Monterrey, and yearly banquets are some of the attractions of the organization which exist to promote friendship and good will among the American republics, and to incite an interest in the study of Spanish.

Miss Lucy Belle Morgan is sponsor of the club. Mrs. Margaret Mood McKennon and Dr. Herbert L. Gray are honorary members.

BARB ASSOCIATION

All non-fraternity and non-sorority students are considered Independents, or Barbs. These students are united in an organization known as the Barb Association. The purpose of this organization is dual. The organization attempts to secure for the non-fraternity student a voice in student government, and it attempts to provide the independent student with the opportunity to attend social functions designed to fit his needs. The Barb Association is also the means by which non-fraternity men participate in the intramural program of the school. The success of this organization depends entirely upon the amount of interest the individual independents take in its activities.

BARB EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

BARB SOCIAL FUNCTION

An Executive Council is elected by the independent students to govern the Barb Association during the year. This year that council has been composed of the following students: Ed Harris, Chairman; Cy Rodgers, Charley Powell, Milton Perry, Spencer Meredith, Charles Smith, Lewis Doan, Albert Cobb, Mickey Lott, Ida Mae Rundell, Billie Marie Lawhon, Gladine Criswell. Henry Meyer has served as Chairman of the Social Committee.

The Year

Pictorial Chronology, Snaps

his book is the most human. It is you as you were and preferred to be. It is the one you will turn to most often in nineteen hundred and seventy-one. We hope you were not missed and beg to excuse ourselves if we were unable to put you in front of the camera at least once during this year.

This is the last book. To you all we are profoundly grateful for being able to be with you this year. It is our sincere prayer that sometime in the years that will come we shall be able to come back to this place and this year and live again 1941 at Southwestern. May this book be the medium by which we can relive this year in memory.

PICTORIAL CHRONOLOGY

The Months by Pages

S E P T E M B E R

How some of us get here. . . Registration Day, how we all get in. . . Mood Hall Teaparty (note to Dean: this is a faked shot)... A "Mulebarn" bull session, even if the election is still two months off. . . Classes commence a la Dean Ferguson... These aren't chumps, they're just Freshmen, term themes aren't due for four more months. . . Sunshine, steps and a class to be late to. . . These late breakfast-eaters soon faded when the young ladies were "asked" down to breakfast. . . A new teacher, Miss Aroxie Hagopian. . . A fraternity man comes to a football game. . . Red gets an early start. . . Our new gym, the Jim West Gymnasium

O C T O B E R

Homecoming, the parade. . . Our special train, on to San Marcos, we go, we're there, we come back. . . Campus Crusade, Rev. G. P. Comer. . . October 15, Registration for Selective Service. . . Slimes fight for their shoes. . . Mary Jane Whitcomb, Queen of the Rainbow. . . Bohumir Kryl and the Kryl Symphony Orchestra. . . An embryonic Kryl, Bohumir Miller. . . The real pep generator at Pirate Football games, the Pirate Band. . . Open House at Mood Hall

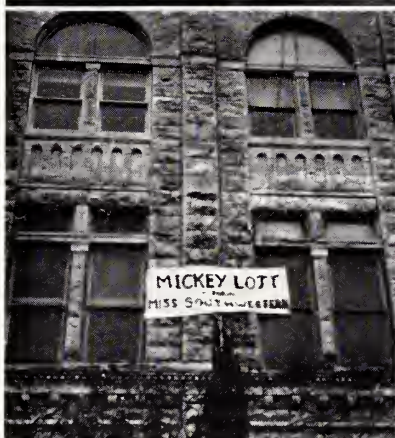

N O V E M B E R

Slime Atkins and Slime Davidson being united in slimey matrimony for being the slimiest of the slimey slimes. . . The slimes stroll on while the upperclassmen look on. . . For the first time in the history of Southwestern's many traditions, a tradition is broken, the upperclassmen are outwitted as the Freshmen raise their flag on the goal posts. . . Ohio: Willkie 1,732,608, Roosevelt 1,732,610. . . Edgar A. Guest at Southwestern. . . Dr. Bergin flies. . . Eddie Guest still at Southwestern. . . Winterset. . . Charley rusticates until the Pirates indicate. . . The Barbarians stomp. . . Alpha Delta Pi returns to the Gay Nineties. . . More of the Mask and Wig production, Winterset. . . We all laughed when Wag took up his fiddle, but he soon showed us. Among the selections rendered by him during the evening were "Gonna Dance with the Dolly with the hole in her stocking," "Melody in A-Square," "Route Five, Henderson, Blues," "Turkey in the Straw," and "Darkeyes." . . Phi Delta Theta eats at home. . . We go home for some turkey.

LAURA KUYKENDALL

HALL and DINING HALL

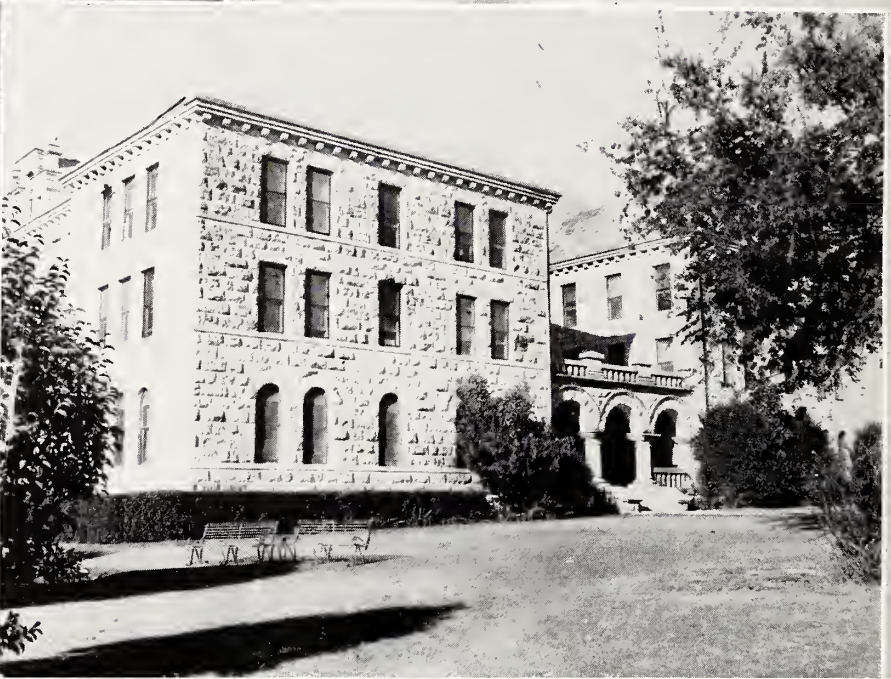

Laura Kuykendall Hall is the home of Southwestern girls. Those students who live in Laura Kuykendall and Mood Halls take their meals in the Dining Hall. With the girls who now live in Laura Kuykendall Hall will go many memories. Its place is big in the hearts of all S. U. students, but to the girls who call it home it is Southwestern. These are pictures of Laura Kuykendall Hall and the Dining Hall which is just west of the girls' dorm.

THE KEY to a new kind of Texas

INDUSTRIAL TEXAS! We've heard plans discussed . . . we've seen much progress. Yet the average Texan probably would be surprised to learn that an investment of over seven hundred million dollars already has been made toward building a new kind of Texas!

Thus, with this seven hundred million dollar investment, Texas business leaders have the key to open Texas' new industrial era.

Lone Star Gas Company was one of the first natural gas companies organized in Texas. It has pioneered in the development of Texas gas reserves, in methods of transmission and distribution. Today, Lone Star Gas Service is considered one of the finest in the world. Potent in building and maintaining this high standard of service is the factor of capital investment which Lone Star Gas System has made. It amounts to well over $40,000.00 for each employee.

Natural gas companies operating in Texas have invested in plants, gas reserves and equipment about $725,000,000.00 in making available a dependable supply of natural gas to homes, business houses and industrial plants. Already over 6,000 Texas industrial plants are using this clean, low-cost fuel service for heat and power. When one stops to consider the inestimable benefits this huge investment has brought already to land owners, homes, business and industry some idea of its significance in today's efforts to build a greater industrial Texas can be seen.

PIONEERING—the vision to plan and the will to do—expanded a few colonies into the greatest nation on earth. And in our country's business a constant flow of pioneering ideas at work has expanded small beginnings into large enterprises.

The fore of progress is IDEAS AT WORK. And thus it is that the means of putting new and better ideas into effect are of importance to the progress and prosperity of every business, and every individual.
